

THE PROBLEM

The Federal Poverty Level (FPL) for a family of four is an annual income of $30,000

38,346

People in Jefferson County are experiencing poverty.

Census.gov*

Only 4in10 Americans have enough savings to cover an emergency of $1,000.

JPP uses a two-gen approach to provide families with a clear pathway toward long-term economic stability-- our mission is parents to self-sufficiency and children to high school diploma and beyond.

INDIVIDUALIZED COACHING

JPP serves more than 100 families annually

We provide over 300 individuals with comprehensive support in academics, mental health, financial empowerment, skill development, and job training to secure livable-wage employment.

EDUCATIONAL ATTAINMENT

College graduates earn an average of 84% more than high school graduates.

90% of JPP students graduate high school on time.

ECONOMIC STABILITY

of families increase their income after working with JPP coaches for one year.

After three years of working with JPP coaches, families increase their annual income by $32,000

FINANCIAL EMPOWERMENT

of JPP families engage in financial literacy education to improve credit scores, decrease debt, and increase savings.

ADVANCING EMPLOYMENT

70% of JPP families gain employment in the first six months of enrollment.

72% of JPP households remain employed.

MENTAL HEALTH & WELLNESS

90% of JPP families have healthcare coverage and actively utilize preventative services.

