

JPP SUCCESS STORIES

RHIANNON

Meet Rhiannon, a mother of two wonderful boys who began her journey with JPP in 2015. In 2023, Rhiannon graduated from the School of Mines with her Master's in Applied Optical Physics and accepted a position at Lockheed Martin. Thanks to the support she received from the JPP community and her coach, she overcame obstacles to pursue her dreams and is thriving.

CARRIE

Carrie is a mother to three wonderful children and an amazing member of the JPP community. Throughout her time in JPP, she worked hard to land her dream job with the Veterans Administration and has made significant gains toward financial stability, increasing her credit score to almost 800. Carrie's story demonstrates the transformative power of determination, hard work, and the support provided by JPP.

RYNN

Rynn is a mother, wife, active and engaged community member, MSU graduate, and recently promoted to Vice President of Housing and Employment at Family Tree. She is committed to helping others improve their life circumstances and is always seeking new ways to grow both personally and professionally.

LEAH

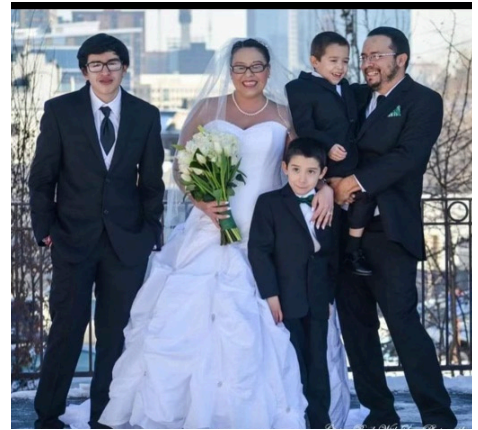

As a devoted mother to two boys and Chair of the Jeffco Prosperity Partners Family Advisory Board, Leah's journey is nothing short of inspirational. She earned her bachelor's degree and now flourishes as an interior designer. Leah's commitment to her family and career is a testament to her resilience and tenacity, making her a true role model to the JPP community.

JPP SUCCESS STORIES

MARIA

Maria joined JPP in 2019 with a clear vision for her future: to pay down debt, continue her education, and launch her childcare business. A few years later, she graduated as a proud homeowner with a thriving childcare business and a bright future. Maria gained the self-confidence to achieve major milestones, such as mastering business accounting, which enabled her to become self-sufficient and significantly increase her income.

Maria believes in giving back to the community just as the community has supported her. Her future goals include paying off her mortgage early and pursuing a real estate license to invest in properties and provide affordable housing.

AMBROSIA

Ambrosia joined JPP in 2022 with aspirations to create a better life for her family, focusing on paying down debt, improving mental health, and advancing her education. Ambrosia's hard work has paid off in numerous ways. She graduated debt-free, significantly improving her family's financial stability by increasing their savings and credit scores. She and her husband, Leo, are enrolled at Metropolitan State University of Denver, working toward their bachelor's degrees in Information Technology.

Ambrosia has set a powerful example for her children, showing them the value of hard work and how perseverance can turn hopes and dreams into reality.

CHARLOTTE

Since joining JPP in 2019, Charlotte has achieved significant milestones in financial security, her career of caring for others, and debt reduction, all of which have greatly improved her family's life. She graduated with a community behind her, valuable financial skills, a meaningful career, and a new home with a yard.

Charlotte served as a leader on the JPP Family Advisory Board, where she helped develop programming that enhanced services for the JPP community. The small groups and family-oriented community have been instrumental in her development, offering valuable insights, encouragement, and a sense of belonging. Charlotte's story inspires everyone in the JPP community, encouraging them to pursue their dreams with determination and support.

